M. d'Aremberg, a French scientist, has found that fine old cognac injected into rabbits killed them, whereas the cheap brands did comparatively little harm, which is rough on the fellows who have the very best B. and S. served up at the club in the morning.

Ex President Harrison killed the first deer shot this season in his part of the Adirondacks, but Tom doesn't care. He found a four-leaf clover two or three days ago. These feats are counted as good luck, but this year "taint nothing."

It is reported at Washington that Ambassador Bayard has been instructed to represent strongly to the English Government that the United States looks with disfavor upon the apparent encroschment by Great Britain upon Venezuela territory, and desires that the subject shall be speedily submitted to arbitration.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Since the meeting of the Good Roads Convention in Richmond in October last, when the State Good Roads Association was organized, the friends of the movement have kept the subject of good roads for Virginia steadily before the public until to day the project has its advocates in every county of the Commonwealth.

The association has been greatly en Courtsed and in order that the state of the manufacturers are busy, many of them running overtime on orders, and prices realized on the whole show an advance over those of last year. Are doing comparatively well, and any attempt to present the situation in a different light arises from ignorance of the actual facts in the case, or can be traced to sinister purposes." Convention in Richmond in October couraged and in order to further advance the movement it has decided to hold another convention in Richmond hoped the representation will be peace. in keeping with the importance of the work in hand. It is the desire of the association that the chairman of the Board of Supervisors of each county in the State should appoint one delegate from each magisterial district and one delegate at large from his county.

This is done in order to get a full rep resentation from every county, it being the purpose to dissouss at the forthcoming convention the subject of road legislation for the State, and this can be done more intelligently where all the counties and conditions are fully rep resented.

and contiguous territory, to be illus | practically put the Battimore and Onio trated with maps, sections and sketches. It will be recollected by readers of THE VIRGINIAN that Capt, Boyd issued a book descriptive of the resources of Southwest Virginia some time ago, which received very high commendation from the press in this country and Europe. Harper's Monthly gave that work a full page notice of very high character and the London Standard and other foreign journals made favorable mention of it. So well was this work received that even now Capt. Boyd's papers on kindred subjects are copied gin ; full by such leading Enghish technical journals as the London "Ironmonger." Capt. Boyd is well qualified to engage in this very important work by reason of his long experience in the critical examination of all the material resources of this and neighboring States, as also from his education at the University of Virginia and his membership in the leading the fortnightly meetings of the Town technical cosicties of this country. has accumulated a very large part of the necessary notes of his book, and will establish temporary headquarters in different parts of the territory mentioned. The book will treat of Economic Geology, Mineralogy, Mineral Waters, "Mines, Furnaces, Manufactures, Agriculture and Forestry, with special reference to different transpor-tation lines. Ports and inland cities and towns, their manufacturing facili ties and their commerce will receive full attention. It will be a very valuable work.

CONDIMATED BY CAMPOS.

A letter written by Gen. Martinez Campos, and read in the Spanish Senate on July 21st, 1879, by Senor Carnos del Castillo, has just been republished in Madrid, and now the enemies of the monarchy, who are also the enemies of Campos, are asking how it is that Campos held such views as were expressed by him in 1879, and yet to day is filling a position and is giving utter ance to sontiments so directly opposite.

The republication of the letter, as can be understood, has caused great comment both within and without Government circles. Here it is:

"Promises never fulfilled, abuses of "From see never in the seed of a gri-culture and public works, the exclusion of the natives from all branches of adof the ustives from all branches of ad ministration, and other faults in plenty, gave rise to the insurrection of Yara. The conviction of successive governments that no other means can be used here but terror, and that it a matter of dignity not to begin reform as long as a shot is fired, made it continue. In this way we should have accomplished nothing, even though we covered the island with soldiers. If we do not wish to ruin Spain we must take up frankly the question of liberties. I believe that if Cuba is too weak to be independent it is more than strong enough to become a Spanish province. Had Capt. Gen. Campos repeated

Had Capt. Gen. Campos repeated these sentiments to the Home Government in the same manner, and with the same degree of earnestness in 1895 as in 1879, affairs in Cuba might be different to-day than what they are. AN ADMISSION PLON AN UNEX. PICIED QUARTER.

The Wool and Cotton Reporter, which has been a staunch advocate of protection, has at last opened its eyes to the true condition of affairs, and admits, with a frankness unlooked for from that quarter, that the manufacturers, in whose interest it is published, are not suffering under the new tariff, It says:

Those who are given to bowling should read carefully what the Wool and Cotton Reporter has to say on the on October the 10th next, when it is subject, and then forever hold their Eyery now and then we hear the story revived that the Baltimore and Ohio failway is seeking or soon to seek new territory in the South. The story now is that Vice-Presidept King is on an inspection tour of the Roanoke and Southern and Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley roads with a view of utilizing those lines by purchase or otherwise for getting into the rich territory of the South. Should Mr. King acquire these properties his company would have to build from Lexington to Roanoke, a distance of fifty miles, which

Man and His Shoes.

Man and His Shoes.

How much a man is tike his shoes!
For instance, both a sale may lose;
Ecth have been tanned; both are made tight
By cobblers; both ged left and right;
Both need a mante to be complete.
And both are made to go on feet.
And both are made to go on feet.
They beth need heeling, oft are sold,
and both in time will tarn to modd,
with shoes the last is first; with men
The first shall be the last. When
The shoes wear out, they're mended new;
When men wear out, they're mended new;
When men wear out, they re men dead tos.
They both are trod upon, and both
Will tread on others, nothing loath,
Both have their ties, and both incline,
When polished, in the world to since,
And both peg out. Now, would you choose
To be a man or be his shoes?

Do not look for wrong and evil.
You will find them if you do.
As you measure for your neighbor,
He will measure back to you.
